

Date:

Thursday, March 25, 2010

Time:

3:10 p.m. –3:25 p.m

Presenter:

“Providing Torque Training for the Wind Industry”

Larry Hobbs

Lead Instructor of Facilities Maintenance

Gateway Technical College Kenosha Campus

Larry Hobbs will provide information on the development of torque training program developed in partnership with Snap On and Gateway Technical College in Kenosha Wisconsin. Topics to be discussed will be course development and deployment. Larry will discuss the importance of torque applications and precision bolting in industry and its relevance in the Wind Industry and its partnership with Lakeshore Technical College to provide torque training in their wind program.

Presenter Biography:

Larry Hobbs

Larry Hobbs has over 18 years experience in facility operation and maintenance and boiler and chiller operation with the Racine Unified School District. Larry was an Instructor, Curriculum Developer and Instructor Mentor for the Service Employees International Unions Confined Space Training and Hazardous Materials Training program from 1989 to 1996. He came to Gateway Technical College as an adjunct instructor for the Power Engineer program in 1997 and was hired as a full time HVAC Instructor in 2003. Currently Larry is Lead Instruct for Manufacturing on the Kenosha Campus and is in charg